Each page of the wizard contains instructions and options which will guide you through backing up your data. Depending on the program or files you are backing up EZ Backup will decide whether it needs to search your computer for files. If a search is necessary you will be asked to specify the types of files you want to backup. A list of file types will be displayed and the default selection is recommended for most users. Your next choice is where you would like to save the backup archive which will contain your data. You can save this archive to your hard-drive, a network drive, or even a removable disk like an mp3 player. The program will then automatically find your data and create an executable backup archive. If you need to restore your data simply run the backup archive on the computer to which you want to restore your data and follow the wizard's instructions. The auto-detect destination feature will automatically find the right place to restore your files. EZ Backup QuickBooks Basic Screenshots: long as it carried the Muzzle Thunder. "I stopped at way-side a few miles out from your uncle's to pick up my horse. When I reached the spot where he lay I found him dead and I found the sheriff of the county here, who told me to see you." "The blame fool! What good will his detection do us?" "None I'm afraid,--but I have an idea that--" "What is it? Quick! the march is slow enough, I fear, and it is too late to take you into my uncle's confidence. How did he die?" "He was shot." "Shot! it is he who has shot!" "You are quite right," said Ralph, "and how does that help us? Can you tell me where this farmer is now?" "No, but there is a man, a contractor, by the name of Jim Wilson, he who shot my uncle, a good, kind man, who never did any harm, but was always ready to help and to give advice,--who will tell you all he kn 6a5afdb4c
