Patna: Bihar Director General of Police (DGP) Alok Ranjan on Monday distanced himself from reports that alleged there were chances of police cover being provided to the twin blasts at Gaya near Patna last week. Patna: The DGP said it was not possible to bring out a full-fledged report after such a short period. "It would be possible after we get a detailed investigation report. When it will be ready, a full-fledged report can be released. We can only say that we are not aware of any "police cover" being provided to the murderers," Ranjan said. One of the two girls – Rohit Kumar and Manish Kumar – had claimed to have paid Rs 1.5 lakh to have police protection for the attack, which claimed four lives. A Special Investigation Team (SIT) has been set up by the Bihar Government to probe the incident. Seven persons have been arrested, of which five are known to have been hired by the plant owner. The police have arrested a person named Piyush Yadav who the police claim is the mastermind behind the gang and a fellow convict, Hanuman Prasad, for facilitating his entry into the state, sources said.
