news is coming from Disney's Animal Kingdom. Officials have just announced that the giant lagoon boat that is the centerpiece of the park has undergone an upgrade. Since the boat first debuted in 2004, it's undergone many updates and one of the main features is the onboard ride system that allows guests to interact with one another and experience the park through the ears of Mickey and friends. Unfortunately, the ride has been out of commission for many years now because of a "malfunction" that resulted in the ears of some of the characters being closed up. Now, however, the boat's new ride system has been restored and more. It was first announced in February of 2016 that the Disney's Animal Kingdom Disney boat was having maintenance. Since then, details have been scarce, but Disney Parks is finally taking the next step and inviting guests aboard for a full look. The boat will begin its journey to the shore today, October 12th, with reservations opening up at 7AM. The boat's new theme will be "Introducing Villains", which is actually a reference to the upcoming Disney/Marvel movie, "Captain America: Civil War", in which a battle between the Avengers and the "Villains" takes place on the Magic Kingdom's Tomorrowland Speedway. This time around, the boat will be making its journey down Main Street U.S.A. and guests will be able
