Adobe Photoshop CS3, CS4, CS5, CS6. etc. no Category:Adobe PhotoshopQ: "cat" command is not working in Ubuntu 16.04 I am new to Ubuntu, I am facing the problem while using cat command. It is giving the output as blank instead of the output. I try to use sudo apt-get install libdvdcss to install the DVD-Player support and I am trying to play a DVD but it gives me the error: Unknown error I use Ubuntu 16.04 along with Win7. A: I think the problem is due to the spaces in the command and the commands need to run separately. sudo apt-get install libdvdread4 When you do that it is replacing the line sudo apt-get install libdvdread4 by the output of grep 'dvdread4' /etc/apt/sources.list which is very short dvdread4 : all This leads to it being saved as sudo apt-get install libdvdread4 : all and then when you run the second command, it shows you the content of a blank page. sudo apt-get install libdvdread4 instead of sudo apt-get install libdvdread4 Hope that helps. for i in range(1, len 3da54e8ca3
