The voting process has been improved, you can now easily and efficiently change the default icon for any application in the context menu. You have two ways to do that: from the Advanced options in the context menu or from the Settings dialog. Also we removed a couple of entries that made the pack inconsistent, in case you were still using them. Love them all! I didn't know people actually liked this icon pack. I will say, it is not quite up to my other icon packs. I've tried to tune them up since it was my first icon pack. Don't know if there's anything I can do to improve them. But these are all awesome and I'm happy you featured them! These icons are amazing! I love the one for Firefox and have been using it for a while now. Thanks for making them so easy to integrate! I have been using icons pack 15 and is my most favorite. I use them for every
