Through the week you can enter the week 7 competition by tweeting at us all week. This week you can take away a copy of Joseph Heller's Catch 22 at the end of the week if you win. We will announce the winner this weekend. First prize for the individual who has uploaded the most photos into the gallery at the end of the week is a copy of Through the Walls and a copy of Marlon Brando's A Streetcar Named Desire at the end of the week. I've had a few weeks off so decided to start again with a new personal challenge. Each day this week I plan on posting a photo of my daily menu for that day. I'll be posting only once a day until the end of the week at the weekend - you can look back through the week's menu if you like. For my first go I've decided to mix it up a bit and use a non-food related subject. Yesterday was International Workers Day, today it's 'the world's best TV light show'. The photo above is of the CCTV cameras in Hong Kong. They appear quite similar to the security cameras in St Louis. There are several up in the sky too but they are mostly for technical reasons as they are used for weather purposes.

If you come across a photo today that you like please feel free to share them on Twitter. Follow me on Twitter via @alanmcauley if (ret) { 3e33713323
