VideoTyrant lets you stream video through the BitTorrent network. Videos are added by file-uploading members on the forums or they can be found on P2P networks. Once you find a video that you would like to share, upload it. Just select the video from the list and then enter the size of the video, the password and where you would like it to be shared. When you are ready with all that just hit upload. Before the video is finished being uploaded, you are redirected to the VideoTyrant website. Once there, you can enter a search term and the application will find the video for you. If you want it sent somewhere else, then just send the link. VideoTyrant features support for streaming video files as well as DVD, BDMV, RAW, MPEG, WMV, AVI, MKV, VOB, MPG, TS, WMA, BUP, MPG2, M2TS, WEBM, OGM, AIFF, MP3, MP4, FLV, 3GP, 3G2, F4V, MP4V, SWF, and other formats. Why would I want this? Well there are more options than just streaming video, you can actually convert the video into different formats. Here are the list of supported format that VideoTyrant can convert to and from. This program is not only limited to stream video but to convert them as well. The program supports the following language conversion: Chinese, English, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish and Vietnamese. Extract Transcoder Description: Extract Transcoder is a simple program that allows you to extract video from any kind of compressed files, regardless if they are AVI, MPEG, MKV, DVD, VOB, SWF, FLI, VOB, MOV, 3GP, MPG, F4V, MP4, and other. The application is very easy to use but it has one built in limitation, its limited to extracting video from files without a specified extension for example extracting a 3GP file without specifying the extension as 3GP What makes Extract Transcoder special? Extract Transcoder does not require any third-party encoding software or any other software to extract the embedded video from the files. This is achieved by using a special mapping file that allows it to find and extract the embedded video. Why would I want this? b7e8fdf5c8
