The centre called India's entry in the case "a positive step". (File Photo) The centre called India's entry in the case "a positive step". (File Photo) India has "heartily welcomed" the apprehension of a suspected Indian Mujahideen (IM) recruiter by the US and has reiterated its support for "full access" for credible UN probe of the 2008 Mumbai terror attack and the Pulwama terror attack. US State Department said it welcomes India's entry as a respondent "with heartily" in the case which has been transferred to the International Court of Justice (ICJ). "We welcome India's entry as a respondent to this case. We have heartily welcomed the apprehension of Sayeed (Imran) Hashim Butt by the United States law enforcement officials," said State Department Spokesperson Heather Nauert on Thursday. "We also urge the government of India to permit full access for credible international investigation. Such an investigation is the best way to bring those responsible for d0c515b9f4
