“This is a milestone in the history of FIFA. We have invested heavily in cutting edge technologies, creating a new set of gameplay mechanics with never-before-seen precision to create a deeper, more physical and immersive experience for players,” said Alex Aouizerate, Global Head of eSports at EA SPORTS. “But above all, we believe that HyperMotion Technology will allow us to deliver the most authentic football experience possible.” Here's another look at the FIFA 22 Cover: Playlist all 31 Matchday Moments on FIFA 20 Catch up on all of the other moments you missed This event is live in the US on October 29 and November 1. Check out the full launch schedule here. Take a look at all the latest news and coverage on the next FIFA: FIFA 20 with PS4, Xbox One, and PC Battlepass Card Join the FIFA 20 gameplay community Watch the launch trailer Beware. You're at The Foundry Cyber Park, one of the largest Internet Service Provider companies in Malaysia. One of the big bosses sneaks in the room. “We need to have your bathroom fixed,” he says. Oh yes, it seems like you have a problem in your bathroom. You're a little surprised but... So you go back and visit him. You explain that the problem is not with your toilet but your shower. This is the story of Pocari Sweat. Now what do you think? Would you tell him the truth and let him know his bath product is a toilet water? Probably not. But what about this? If the bath product turns into a toilet and you're finding it hard to flush your toilet, would you really tell him that? Toilet problem or bath problem, which would you choose to tell? I bet most of you will choose the toilet problem. Here are some reasons to be cautious. → The bathtub for toilets is ancient and can malfunction easily. → If you invest on the bath products, you will always have a constant flow of money for the rest of your life. → Over 40 percent of Malaysians still use the public toilets (Not the urinals). → If you tell them the truth, they will become your allies forever. → You might pursuit of a more realistic football experience. Players now experience a host of new gameplay features that combine to allow you to truly feel as if you are the most skilled player on the pitch. This includes the return of every FIFA player to their Real Street location, with footballers being made to feel as if they're at home on their favourite patch of grass. Every patch of turf feels new, and all moves and decisions made by players on the pitch are now more contextualized to the specific pitch. Players are also able to put their ball skills to the test in brand new ways, challenging you to solve physics-based puzzles and compete in skill-based modes. Experience the New FIFA Game Engine FIFA 22 features a brand new game engine, the Dynamic RetoNet Engine, which brings a host of new features to the table. The new engine allows for graphical features such as goal mouth animations, fan/home/away/lockout banners, crowd reactions, and the return of animated player models. It also features ground conditions such as arctic temperatures, grass heights, dimensions, and an improved artificial intelligence system. The real pitch is at your feet, challenging you to execute each ball with precision in the most realistic way possible. The New AI The AI brings to life a brand new way of looking at competitive gaming. A new AI system forces players to evolve with their opponents and reacts realistically to the conditions on the pitch. They are more aggressive and less willing to concede a goal. The system also features new ways of intelligently controlling the pitch. Your team can now control the pitch in your favour with a new in-game coaching feature
