The “HyperMotion” technology improvements for FIFA 22 are as follows: Dynamic Player Trajectories The player behavior is just as dynamic as the gameplay. Let the action happen. Players can be unpredictable and try new moves in every passing situation. Players adapt to the speed and pressure of the game. Real-life data from over 22 players from the Bundesliga, Serie A, La Liga, MLS and the Eredivisie has been captured to represent a real-life match experience. Powered by “HyperMotion Technology,” technical players can react to every phase of the game and create new and innovative gameplay options. Dribbling, shooting and crossing have never been easier. Players are also not hindered by the roughness of the ball in hands or when close to the by-line. Goalkeepers can be more agile when attacking and making more unpredictable saves to test their technical ability. Better handling will have a big impact on crosses. Goalkeepers will need to block the ball much more often. Ball Physics Changes Using “HyperMotion” Motion Capture data, FIFA 22 features many improvements to the way the ball behaves on the field. Players can change direction with more precision and control the ball with more realistic touch. Combinations can be planned for next few seconds with more confidence. FIFA HyperMotion Technology Feature Improvements Include: Better Movement and Handling The digital ball is more responsive to player actions. With “HyperMotion” vision data, players can now manipulate the ball in small and large changes of direction with much more accuracy. Dynamic Ball Physics and Handling Constraint-based physics gives players more control when they are juggling the ball. With new ball control options, players can now shoot accurately and weave more smoothly. Improved Precision of Movement Players can now move the ball more in small and large lateral and vertical changes of direction. Players can also do long aerial volleys more accurately. New Ball Control Options Players can now dribble directly on a player more often and more aggressively. This will test the technical ability of players and their stamina. The options can now be used anywhere on the pitch. FIFA 20 was released in September of 2017. FIFA is a popular game series that has been played for many years. The game was launched in September 1989 on the 16-bit Sony PlayStation

Enter the forbidden triangle. Here, men are men and only the strongest will survive. Play as four young hunters, each with his own strengths and tendencies. Take part in the tense, brutal world of male violence and the protection of womanhood. Highlights Unique melee combat, with brutal set pieces. Beautiful 3D models and environments, with superb local and online multiplayer. Made by the same company that brought you The Elder Scrolls and The Sims franchises. Control three hunters in the core gameplay of a jungle survival and combat simulator. About this Game The Sims 4 Jungle Hunt is a dream for all PC gamers with a passion for hunting, survival, fishing, and more. Some say a man's passion for hunting drives him to greatness, but that is not the case. It is only a small flame which burns fiercely inside the hearts of many great hunters. Your passion for hunting has become dull. Your fear of your prey has vanished. And now, you must prove your skills. In this new simulation title, you will: CREATE YOUR OWN HUNTING PARTY The jungle is the only thing that can provide you with peace and shelter. But outside it is a beautiful world. So you'll need to protect the environment, build a "base", and even take care of your own people. MANAGE YOUR HUNTERS When it comes to hunting, you need the best – you need a pack of wild dogs. Each dog has its own unique set of skills. You must reward good hunters, punish poor ones, and teach them your methods. With your hunters, you'll complete challenges by finding hidden objects, understanding animals' habits, and surviving. MAKE A FISHING BOAT AND FISH In the vast jungle, there are thousands of different species of fish. Some move at the right speed, and some move at the wrong speed. You will need to take care
