Lincoln boss Michael Jolley was happy to enjoy a comfortable 90 minutes against a struggling Barnsley outfit, but Sam Winnall almost scored the opener inside the first two minutes, as he fired just wide of the far post after being put in through the centre by Winnall. The Gulls striker then slotted wide after a positive run from the left side, before Dunn was inches away from giving City the lead just before the half-time whistle. Defender Ched Evans cleared the ball off the line, but Dunn was on hand to fire goalwards towards the empty net, but the chance was ruled offside. The Gulls were the more dangerous side in the early stages of the second half, with a goal-line cross just over the reach of Leif Davis, the defender turning the ball behind for a corner. But the Blues tried to hit back in search of a first-half tally, with Lee Johnson blasting over the bar with a 30-yard effort. The home side thought they had gone in front, but Winnall was judged to have handled the ball inside the box to give the visitors a free kick on the edge of the area. Barnsley began to show a little more ambition to open the scoring, with
