“When we set out to create FIFA, we decided that we wanted to be ahead of the curve,” said David Rutter, Senior Director of Pro-Soccer Operations for EA SPORTS. “We are the first in the industry to use motion capture to not only enhance game physics, but also develop a complete, player-driven experience. HyperMotion Technology immerses players in a new era of football, allowing them to drive the game and control the pace of play.” Stay tuned for further details on FIFA 22, including gameplay video, release date, and more. FIFA 22 will be available for PS4 and Xbox One platforms and will also be coming to mobile. FIFA 22 is a complete, player-driven FIFA experience that features new ways to play, with unique player traits to control gameplay; new features and functions for a deeper connection to the game, like Player Impact Ease, Pro Player Intelligence and Player Balance, which both improves gameplay accuracy and also allows for more personal control over the player you play; All New Speed of Play - New Movements, Acceleration, Ball Control, and Turn Outs to turn your team into a force of speed and tactics; and much more. Players around the world have been getting their hands on the game, and we are thrilled to be able to share the progress of the game with fans and the media. Learn more about FIFA 22 and check out our June 12th and June 19th editions of EA Play when we discuss the new game. The 2016 election could bring the first change in Maryland’s leadership in about 16 years. With three months until voters cast ballots, Maryland’s General Assembly has an opportunity this year to elect leaders who reflect the state’s political leanings — the first change in leadership in the General Assembly since 2006. Now, with a primary election coming on June 23 and a general election set for Nov. 8, the chances are good that Montgomery County Sen. Jamie B. Raskin (D-At large), Prince George’s County Del. Hans Riemer (D-At large) and Prince George’s County state Sen. Robert S. Zirkin (D-At large) will make history by becoming the state’s first Maryland first-term progressives. Then, in a few months, Raskin and Zirkin could run against

To deliver the best possible viewing experience, FIFA 22 will offer a variety of camera options. After adjusting the camera in the stadium and in the studio - the view and angle you see on the pitch will be determined by your personal preference. For example, you can choose to see the whole pitch. Or, you can choose to see closer to the action, but using wider angle lenses - the wider the lens the closer you will be able to track the players. You can even switch the camera between a close up of the pitch (player view), to a far shot (over the top). Use these options to suit the way you prefer to play. All of these camera options can be assigned to the buttons on your controller, plus the camera can be easily toggled in the screen centre for a quick adjustment. Multiple cameras make a compelling viewing experience even better.
