The 2019.1.3 update and the next 2019.1.4 release will be available on the JetBrains releases page in a few days time. There will be a notification in your JetBrains account the first week of August. You can use this license on as many computers as you have or want, but the product key must be uniquely associated with the login (aka "license key") of the account to which it is issued. Each new license key must be uniquely identified by a product identifier specified during activation, and cannot be shared with other users of the same JetBrains account. If you have not received the license or did not upgrade to Ultimate or dotUltimate, please email x.help@jetbrains.com. You can use the same email or get one on the JetBrains user service. The format for the email address to get a JetBrains account is `us` (e.g. `support@mydomain.com`). After you verify your email address, you will receive a `license` link. Note the `send license to the new account` field that you must complete (optional for existing Ultimate or dotUltimate license holders).
